Wong & Partners reopens office in line with the easing of movement restrictions

Statement attributable to Wong & Partners' Managing Partner Andre Gan

Kuala Lumpur, 1 June 2020 - Wong & Partners' office premises at The Gardens South Tower in Kuala Lumpur is open as of 1 June 2020, in line with the easing of movement controls by the Malaysian Government.

The health and safety of our colleagues and visitors remain our priority and measures are in place to help avoid the spread of Covid-19. Our office is observing all regulations on social distancing and health measures as mandated by the authorities.

Guests will be required to take a temperature check and fill in a health declaration form upon arrival. Our building management also has similar measures in place for visitors.

Our staff have been assigned into two teams and each will work from the office on an alternate week basis for the foreseeable future. We encourage you to contact the Partner, lawyer or business professional you are working with should you wish to visit our office so that arrangements can be made.

Our team also remains contactable via their existing contact details and will be able to communicate with clients through the telephone and a range of technology platforms. We encourage you to contact the lawyer in charge of your matter should you have any questions or concerns.
