Baker & McKenzie International

Please be aware of scams and impersonation attempts

Kuala Lumpur, 12 August 2025 – Wong & Partners, member firm of Baker McKenzie International, has been alerted to scams involving individuals impersonating as representatives of the Firm and misusing Firm information. These scams include fake legal summonses and communications, unauthorized use of our member firm network logos, and fraudulent job postings—often using Gmail addresses and platforms like Telegram, to obtain private and confidential information.

Please note that our Firm only uses official email domains. We do not send legal documents or communicate vacancies via Gmail or any other unofficial channels. If you receive emails from Gmail or non-Firm addresses claiming to represent us, do not respond, share personal information, or click any links.

If you have received any communications with our logo or Firm information that appear suspicious and wish to verify their authenticity, please contact us at our telephone line + 603 2298 7888. Please be extremely vigilant of these fakes and scams.
