Please be aware of scams and impersonation attempts

Wong & Partners, member firm of Baker McKenzie International, has been alerted to various scams involving individuals impersonating representatives of the Firm and misusing Firm information.

These scams include fake legal summonses and communications, offering of legal services, unauthorised use of the Wong & Partners and Baker McKenzie logos, fake social media pages of the Firm, and fraudulent job postings—often using Gmail addresses and platforms like Telegram and Facebook, to obtain private and confidential information.

Wong & Partners does not send legal documents, offer any form of legal services or communicate job vacancies via Gmail, Facebook or any other unofficial channels. If you receive emails from Gmail or non-Firm email addresses claiming to represent us, do not respond, share personal information, or click any links. Please note that our Firm only uses official email domains.

Please also be aware of fake social media profiles on platforms such as Facebook. Wong & Partners does not maintain a Facebook page (see below for Wong & Partners official social media links). Do also note that the Firm does not make job offers via social media platforms.

If you receive any suspicious communication with our logo, Firm information or from people claiming to be a Firm representative, and wish to verify the information, please contact us at our telephone line + 603 2298 7888. You are advised not to share any personal information before doing so.

Please be extremely vigilant of these fakes and scams.
