Member Firm of
Baker & McKenzie International

Please be aware of attempted impersonation attempts by unknown individuals posing as Wong & Partners representatives

Kuala Lumpur, 3 October 2024 – Wong & Partners, member firm of Baker McKenzie has been made aware of attempts by unknown individuals to scam the public by pretending to be representatives of the Firm.

We believe the individuals are attempting to scam the public by falsely claiming to be Firm representatives and sending fake legal summonses and other documents using the logos of our member firm network, Baker McKenzie. The individuals appears to have mass emailed various businesses using a Gmail email address in attempts to obtain their private and confidential information.

Our Firm wishes to emphasise that we do not use Gmail or any similar email platforms to send official legal documents or communications. All communications from our Firm and member firm network are sent only from our official email domain.

Please do not respond or communicate with any emails from any Gmail or non-Firm email addresses claiming to be representatives of our Firm. Do not share any personal, financial or confidential information with them or open any links contained within the email.

If you have received any communications with our logo or Firm information that appears suspicious and would like to check its authenticity, please contact us at our telephone line + 603 2298 7888.

Please be extremely vigilant of this attempted scam.
